

Fred van der Kolk

Group on Exotic Animals
GGG / KNMvD, Group
'Rabbit' GGG / KNMvD,
Formulary Committee
Antibiotics Companion
Animals: Rabbit KNMvD,
Chair of the Group on Small Mammals and board member of the Foundation
'Platform Verantwoord
Huisdierenbezit' (PVH)
Dierenkliniek Huizerweg,
Bussum
The Netherlands

dierenkliniekhuiserweg@ gmail.com

SOME COMMON PROBLEMS IN RABBIT MEDICINE SPELLED OUT. DIAGNOSTIC APPROACH AND TREATMENT BASED ON CLINICAL CASES

The best way to find out how to use the knowledge about rabbit medicine you have acquired so far, is bringing it into practice by clinical cases.

A number of very common practice cases will be discussed, and some very common phenomena will be spelled out and explained.

So there are the often-seen faeces clumps (in Dutch: plakpoep): why is just removal of the clots not the right thing to do?